

Heroines

Clockwise from left: Exhausted former comfort women from the Philippines rest after a long day of hearings. Activists from Taegu show their support. Philippine former comfort women wait for a press conference. A traditional Korean dancer honors the former comfort women who have died. North and South Korean former comfort women gathered on stage for an informal closing ceremony after the verdict was read.

Photography by Stephen Wunrow

